Oniborne.
Blue Oniborne.

Creature Type. Humanoid.

Compassionate Heart (Help: 4/Long Rest, Empower: Hit Dice). The aid of a blue oniborne is an act of great selflessness imbued with powerful magic. You can take the Help action as a bonus action a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus, and you regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest. In addition, when you take the Help action, you can expend one of your Hit Dice to empower an ally within 5 feet of you, channelling your magic into its body. That creature gains temporary hit points equal to one roll of that die plus your Constitution modifier (minimum 1 temporary hit point).

Crunching Maw. You have vicious teeth and a strong jaw that you can use to make unarmed strikes. When you hit with it, the strike deals piercing damage equal to 1d6 + your Strength modifier, instead of the bludgeoning damage normal for an unarmed strike.

Savage Bite (4/Long Rest). As a reaction when you take damage from a creature within 5 feet of you, you can magically enlarge your jaw and lash out with a vicious bite. Make an unarmed strike using your Crunching Maw against that creature. This attack scores a critical hit on a roll of 18-20 on the d20. You can use this trait a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus, and you regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest.

RACIAL TRAITS

Oni Regeneration (4/Long Rest). As a reaction when you take damage, you can spend a number of your Hit Dice up to your proficiency bonus to heal yourself. Roll the dice, add your Constitution modifier, and regain a number of hit points equal to the total (minimum of 1).

Origin Feats: Savage Attacker(2024). Once per turn when you hit a target with a weapon, you can roll the weapon's damage dice twice and use either roll against the target.

Darkvision. You can see in dim light within 60 feet of you as if it were bright light, and in darkness as if it were dim light.

Fighting Style.
Defense. While you are wearing armor, you gain a +1 bonus to AC.

Second Wind (Bonus Action—1/Short Rest). You regain 1d10+9 hp.

Action Surge (1/Short Rest). On your turn, you can take one additional action on top of your regular action.

Extra Attack. You can attack twice, instead of once, whenever you take the Attack action on your turn

Indomitable (1/Long Rest). You can reroll a saving throw that you fail. If you do so, you must use the new roll.

Rune Carver. Whenever you finish a long rest, you can touch 3 objects, and you inscribe a different rune onto each of the objects. To be eligible, an object must be a weapon, suit of armor, a shield, a piece of jewelry, or something else you can wear or hold in a hand. Your rune remains on an object until you finish a long rest, and an object can bear only one of your runes at a time.
Your Rune Magic saving throw DC is 15.
Cloud Rune (Reaction—1/Short Rest). While wearing or carrying an object inscribed with this rune, you have advantage on Sleight of Hand checks and Deception checks.
When you or a creature you can see within 30 feet of you is hit by an attack roll, you can invoke the rune and choose a different creature within 30 feet of you, other than the attacker. The chosen creature becomes the target of the attack, using the same roll. This magic can transfer the attack's effects regardless of the attack's range.
Fire Rune (1/Short Rest). While wearing or carrying an object inscribed with this rune, your proficiency bonus is doubled for any ability check you make that uses your proficiency with a tool.
When you hit a creature with an attack using a weapon, you can invoke the rune to summon fiery shackles: the target takes an extra 2d6 fire damage, and it must succeed on a DC15 Strength save or be restrained for 1 minute. While restrained by the shackles, the target takes 2d6 fire damage at the start of each of its turns. The target can repeat the saving throw at the end of each of its turns, banishing the shackles on a success.
Storm Rune (Bonus Action—1/Short Rest). While wearing or carrying an object inscribed with this rune, you have advantage on Arcana checks, and you can't be surprised as long as you aren't incapacitated.
You can invoke the rune enter a prophetic state for 1 minute or until you're incapacitated. Until the state ends, when you or another creature you can see within 60 feet of you makes an attack roll, a saving throw, or an ability check, you can use your reaction to cause the roll to have advantage or disadvantage.

Giant's Might (Bonus Action—4/Long Rest). You magically gain the following benefits, which last for 1 minute:
- If you are smaller than Large, you become Large, along with anything you are wearing. If you lack the room to become Large, your size doesn't change.
- You have advantage on Strength checks and Strength saving throws.
- Once on each of your turns, one of your attacks with a weapon or an unarmed strike can deal an extra 1d6 damage to a target on a hit.

Runic Shield (Reaction—4/Long Rest). When another creature you can see within 60 feet of you is hit by an attack roll, you can force the attacker to reroll the d20 and use the new roll.

Rage (Bonus Action—3/Long Rest). Advantage on Strength checks and Strength Saves. A +2 to damage rolls with strength melee weapon attacks. You have resistance to bludgeoning, piercing, and slashing damage.

Unarmored Defense. While you aren't wearing armor, your AC equals 15. You can use a shield and still gain this benefit.

Reckless Attack. When you make your first attack on your turn, you can decide to attack recklessly. Doing so gives you advantage on melee weapon attack rolls using Strength during this turn, but attack rolls against you have advantage until your next turn.

Danger Sense. You have advantage on Dexterity saving throws against effects that you can see, such as traps and spells. To gain this benefit, you can't be blinded, deafened, or incapacitated.

Divine Fury. While raging, the first creature you hit during your turn with a weapon attack takes an extra 1d6+1 necrotic or radiant damage (choose when taking this feature.)

Warrior of the Gods. When a spell with the sole effect of restoring you to life (not undeath) is cast on you, the caster doesn't need material components.

CHARACTER PORTRAIT

NAME

SYMBOL

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

I can stare down a hell hound without flinching.I've lost too many friends, and I'm slow to make new ones.

PERSONALITY TRAITS

Nation. My city, nation, or people are all that matter. (Any)

IDEAL

My honor is my life.

BOND

I have little respect for anyone who is not a proven warrior.

FLAW

War has been your life for as long as you care to remember. You trained as a youth, studied the use of weapons and armor, learned basic survival techniques, including how to stay alive on the battlefield. You might have been part of a standing national army or a mercenary company, or perhaps a member of a local militia who rose to prominence during a recent war.

When you choose this background, work with your DM to determine which military organization you were a part of, how far through its ranks you progressed, and what kind of experiences you had during your military career. Was it a standing army, a town guard, or a village militia? Or it might have been a noble's or merchant's private army, or a mercenary company.

BACKGROUND STORY

Military Rank

You have a military rank from your career as a soldier. Soldiers loyal to your former military organization still recognize your authority and influence, and they defer to you if they are of a lower rank. You can invoke your rank to exert influence over other soldiers and requisition simple equipment or horses for temporary use. You can also usually gain access to friendly military encampments and fortresses where your rank is recognized.

Half Plate Armour of the Oni King.
There's something undeniably intoxicating about the feeling of power one gets by terrorising others. This sensation has led many righteous paragons who don this armour to gradually becoming cruel, vicious tyrants. Inevitably, a freshfaced hero rises to defeat these despots, swearing to use the armour exclusively in the service of good… and the cycle begins anew.
You have a +2 bonus to AC while wearing this armour.
Oni's Aura. As an action while wearing this armour, you can release a wave of menacing lethal intent powerful enough to make other creatures tremble with fear. Each creature of your choice within 20 feet of you must make a DC 16 Wisdom saving throw or be frightened of you for 1 minute. If a creature fails the saving throw by 5 or more times and isn't immune to being frightened, it sees the ghostly image of an enormous oni materialising behind you and is also paralysed until the end of its next turn. A creature frightened in this way must repeat the saving throw at the end of each of its turns, taking 2d6 psychic damage on a failure, or ending the effect on itself on a success. Once this property of the item has been used on someone, it can't be used again in same creature until the next dawn.

Onikiri, Demon Cutter.
"Luckily, this time, the samurai were prepared. While the lesser samurai cut through the demonic underlings, radiant arcs of energy blossoming out from their onikiri to strike down the hordes of stinking dretches, their sensei locked eyes with the huge, bulbous demon. A circle cleared as both samurai and demonlings subconsciously made space for the impending duel. If the sensei could hold the demon's attention for long enough, the day would be theirs." — Saga of the Battle for Black Rock
This weapon has 6 charges and regains 1d6 expended charges daily at dawn. While holding it, you can cast the light cantrip on the blade at will.
Divine Wrath. As a bonus action while holding the sword, you can expend 1 charge to imbue it with crackling radiant energy until the end of your next turn. While imbued, this sword deals an extra 1d6 radiant or lightning damage of your choice to each target it hits. In addition, the first time you hit with an attack using the imbued sword on each of your turns, each Fiend within 10 feet of the target must succeed on a DC 15 Dexterity saving throw or take 2d6 radiant or lightning damage of your choice as crackling energy arcs out towards it.
Demon Lure. As a bonus action while holding the sword, you can expend 2 charges to draw the attention of one creature you can see within 30 feet of you, forcing it to make a DC 15 Wisdom saving throw. Fiends make this saving throw with disadvantage. On a failure, the creature becomes fixated on you for 1 minute. While fixated, the creature is incapacitated and its speed is reduced to 0 feet. This effect ends if you attack any other creature, if you cast a spell, if you're more than 30 feet away from the fixated creature at any point, or if it takes any damage from you or a creature friendly to you.

Goggles of Night. While wearing these dark lenses, you have darkvision out to a range of 60 feet. If you already have darkvision, wearing the goggles increases its range by 60 feet.

Gofu Hat.
This has is crafter from an ink made with the blood of a Celestial. Paper from trees grown in hallowed ground. Precise calligraphy honed with extensive practice. It's not easy to make a genuine paper charm, but it's certainly worth the trouble. There's a reason why superstitious folk continue to scrawl their own imitations, hoping to achieve just a fraction of their power.
When first found or crafted, this hat has 1d4 + 2 paper charms hanging from it, which provide good fortune and ward off evil. It regains 2 expended charges daily at dawn.
Protective Talismans. While wearing the hat, you can use a bonus action to detach a charm and stick it on a willing creature within 5 feet of you, upon which the ink on it begins to glow softly. The creature gains the effects of the Bless spell and gains 1d6 temporary hit points until the start of your next turn, at which point the charm disintegrates. New charms reappears at dawn on hat.

Light

Evocation Cantrip

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	Touch
DURATION	1 hour
COMPONENTS	V, M (a firefly or phosphorescent moss)

You touch one object that is no larger than 10 feet in any dimension. Until the spell ends, the object sheds bright light in a 20-foot radius and dim light for an additional 20 feet. The light can be colored as you like. Completely covering the object with something opaque blocks the light. The spell ends if you cast it again or dismiss it as an action.

If you target an object held or worn by a hostile creature, that creature must succeed on a Dexterity saving throw to avoid the spell.

Apex Grudge Tearer

Weapons

Born from the forbidden kilns of the taboo Osteomancers, the Apex Grudge Tearer is not a product of smithing, but a grotesque collage of extinction woven together to serve the Inquisition's Jaeger Corps. It is a jagged, meat-cleaver-like monstrosity of fused hydra teeth, black dragon scales, and the calcified marrow of krakens, all bound by the sinews of nightmare. The blade's edge is a serrated nightmare that does not slice so much as it grinds and hooks into the soul, while its hilt—wrapped in the coarse hide of monstrosities and adorned with the feral feathers of sky-beasts—terminates in a wicked obsidian spike designed for the most intimate of executions. To the Jeagers who hunt the aberrant filth under the shadow of the Eldritch Moon, this weapon is a necessary evil; its very existence is a defiant scream against the void. Yet, the blade harbors a primal, uncontrollable spite that pulses in rhythm with the lunar cycles. It whispers of a red, endless hunger, threatening to bridge the gap between hunter and beast until the wielder's eyes cloud with a murderous frenzy. To hold the Tearer is to enter a pact with the dead; it repairs its own shattered bone with the skeletons of your victims, all while waiting for the single moment your grip falters—so it may finally taste the warm, familiar blood of its own master.

You have a +3 bonus to attack and damage rolls. Additionally, it deals additional 1d6 slashing damage.

Rending Stacks. The jagged edge of the blade creates deepening wounds. Every time you hit the same target with this weapon, the extra slashing damage increases by 1d6, up to a 4d6 slashing damage. With innate 1d6 damage, the additional maximum damage can be 5d6 slashing damage. This stack resets if you attack a different target or when you won't hit anything in your turn.

Obsidian Pommel. The sharpened obsidian piece at the base of the hilt allows you to make a melee weapon attack as a bonus action, 1d4 plus your attacking ability modifier piercing damage. If this hits, the target must succeed on a DC 18 Constitution save or take 2d6 piercing damage and bleeds at the start of its next turn.

Apex Predator. You gain Resistance to Bludgeoning, Piercing, and Slashing damage. Additionally, while you don't have all of your hit points, you can't have disadvantage in your attacks by any manners.

Flesh-Hook Push. When you hit a same one size bigger creature than you or smaller, you can use a bonus action to attempt to push the target. The target must succeed on a DC 18 Strength saving throw or be pushed up to 10 feet to a direction you choose and knocked Prone.

Osteomantic Mend. When you reduce a creature to 0 hit points, the sword's bone structure "eats" a portion of the victim's skeleton to repair itself. You gain Temporary Hit Points equal to the twice of the creatures CR killed (minimum 4). This Temporary Hit Points can be stacked up to 40 in total.

Curse of the Blood Frenzy. The blood and monstrosity leather used in the hilt pulse with a primal, uncontrollable rage. Whenever you deal damage with the Rending Stacks feature at its maximum, you must succeed on a DC 15 Wisdom saving throw. On a failure, you enter a Berserk State for 1 minute. While you're in Berserk State, you must use your action each round to attack the nearest creature (friend or foe). While you're in this form, you cannot cast spells or concentrate on them nor you can use abilities like rage. You can repeat the saving throw at the end of each of your turns to end the state early. Also, the jagged nature of the blade is dangerous to the wielder. Whether you hit with advantage or not, whenever you roll a 1 on one of your attack rolls, the blade hooks into your own flesh, dealing 2d8 slashing damage to you that cannot be reduced. You can't change this dice by any manners, such abilities like portent, or feats like lucky, or mechanics like inspiration does not work for this rolled dice. This curse is woven into the very soul of the wielder and cannot be ended by Remove Curse or Wish spells. Even if the attunement ends, the curse still remains. To remove this curse, the wielder must be submerged in a pool of liquid silver for 24 hours while a high-level Cleric casts Calm Emotions every hour. This "plates" the bone in silver, suppressing the rage.

Backpack

Adventuring Gear

A backpack is a leather pack carried on the back, typically with straps to secure it. A backpack can hold 1 cubic foot/ 30 pounds of gear.

You can also strap items, such as a bedroll or a coil of rope, to the outside of a backpack.

5 lb. Player's Handbook

Bedroll

Adventuring Gear

7 lb. Player's Handbook

Mess Kit

Adventuring Gear

This tin box contains a cup and simple cutlery. The box clamps together, and one side can be used as a cooking pan and the other as a plate or shallow bowl.

1 lb. Player's Handbook

Tinderbox

Adventuring Gear

This small container holds flint, fire steel, and tinder (usually dry cloth soaked in light oil) used to kindle a fire. Using it to light a torch—or anything else with abundant, exposed fuel—takes an action. Lighting any other fire takes 1 minute.

1 lb. Player's Handbook

Torch

Adventuring Gear

A torch burns for 1 hour, providing bright light in a 20-foot radius and dim light for an additional 20 feet. If you make a melee attack with a burning torch and hit, it deals 1 fire damage.

1 lb. Player's Handbook

Rations (1 day)

Adventuring Gear

Rations consist of dry foods suitable for extended travel, including jerky, dried fruit, hardtack, and nuts.

Hunting Trap

Adventuring Gear

When you use your action to set it, this trap forms a saw-toothed steel ring that snaps shut when a creature steps on a pressure plate in the center. The trap is affixed by a heavy chain to an immobile object, such as a tree or a spike driven into the ground. A creature that steps on the plate must succeed on a DC 13 Dexterity saving throw or take 1d4 piercing damage and stop moving. Thereafter, until the creature breaks free of the trap, its movement is limited by the length of the chain (typically 3 feet long). A creature can use its action to make a DC 13 Strength check, freeing itself or another creature within its reach on a success. Each failed check deals 1 piercing damage to the trapped creature.

25 lb. Player's Handbook

Oil (flask)

Adventuring Gear

Oil usually comes in a clay flask that holds 1 pint. As an action, you can splash the oil in this flask onto a creature within 5 feet of you or throw it up to 20 feet, shattering it on impact. Make a ranged attack against a target creature or object, treating the oil as an improvised weapon. On a hit, the target is covered in oil. If the target takes any fire damage before the oil dries (after 1 minute), the target takes an additional 5 fire damage from the burning oil. You can also pour a flask of oil on the ground to cover a 5-foot-square area, provided that the surface is level. If lit, the oil burns for 2 rounds and deals 5 fire damage to any creature that enters the area or ends its turn in the area. A creature can take this damage only once per turn.

1 lb. Player's Handbook

Crampons

Adventuring Gear

A crampon is a metal plate with spikes that is strapped to the sole of a boot. A creature wearing crampons can't fall prone while moving across slippery ice.

4 lb. Icewind Dale: Rime of the Frostmaiden

Clothing, Cold Weather

Adventuring Gear

This outfit consists of a heavy fur coat or cloak over layers of wool clothing, as well as a fur-lined hat or hood, goggles, and fur-lined leather boots and gloves.

As long as cold weather clothing remains dry, its wearer automatically succeeds on saving throws against the effects of extreme cold.

Potion of Animal Friendship

Potions

When you drink this potion, you can cast the animal friendship spell (save DC 13) for 1 hour at will. Agitating this muddy liquid brings little bits into view: a fish scale, a hummingbird tongue, a cat claw, or a squirrel hair.

½ lb. Dungeon Master's Guide

Potion of Fire Breath

Potions

After drinking this potion, you can use a bonus action to exhale fire at a target within 30 feet of you. The target must make a DC 13 Dexterity saving throw, taking 4d6 fire damage on a failed save, or half as much damage on a successful one. The effect tends after you exhale the fire three times or when 1 hour has passed.

This potion's orange liquid flickers, and smoke fills the top of the container and wafts out whenever it is opened.

½ lb. Dungeon Master's Guide

Potion of Speed

Potions

When you drink this potion, you gain the effect of the haste spell for 1 minute (no concentration required). The potion's yellow fluid is streaked with black and swirls on its own.

Oniborne

Race

On an exterior wall, above a dingy tavern door, rotten from rain and time, a sign was plastered: “NO ONI”.

I hesitated, turning to Yaboku, who met my eyes with a smile.

“I’m not allowed through this door,” he chuckled, “But I can make my own.” His hand curled into a fist and, with a single blow, the tavern wall burst open, the sign falling to the mud at his feet.

— Ryoko’s Diary

Oniborne are descendants of yokai, vessels of impetuous, simmering power that manifests across generations. Saturated in magic, oniborne innately command primal, supernatural forces. In moments of high emotion, instinctive spellcasting is common. An oniborne’s retort may physically scold the body of a foe, flesh might reknit under their palms in moments of compassion, or they may physically shrink when gripped with terror.

Children of Darkness

The life of an oniborne is one plagued by fear and suspicion. Being descendants of the oni, grotesque and dangerous yokai, many other humanoids view oniborne as savage, ugly, violent, and cruel—more akin to demons than their fey ancestors. These are ancient stereotypes, passed from parent to child in bedtime tales of terror. All oniborne, be they virtuous or villainous, suffer under this crude prejudice.

A Deeper Experience

Oniborne reverberate with magic in a way unlike any other race. In the legendary words of Khal Oni: “We simply feel more”. Be it the blood rage of warfare or the serene tranquillity of meditation, oniborne revel in the full gamut of life’s experiences. For this reason, many oniborne are drawn to thrilling, high-risk lifestyles, often becoming big game hunters, soldiers of fortune, or travelling performers.

ONIBORNE TRAITS

As an oniborne, you have the following traits:

Ability Score Increase. Your Constitution score increases by 2.

Age. Oniborne reach maturity at around 21 years of age and have long lives, often living up to 400 years.

Anatomy. You have two arms and two legs.

Size. You are Medium. An oniborne stands between 5 and 7 feet tall.

Speed. Your walking speed is 30 feet.

Creature Type. You are a Humanoid.

Powerful Build. You count as one size larger when determining your carrying capacity and the weight you can push, drag, or lift.

Languages. You can speak, read, and write Common and one other language that you and your GM agree is appropriate for your character.

Subrace. Oniborne exist in many forms. The most striking difference between oniborne types is their colour: red, blue, or green. Choose one of these subraces.

Blue Oniborne

Race Variant

The magic of the blue oniborne is subtle and primal, a singing river of energy that ripples through the body. It can be relayed through physical contact, a healing stream imparted by a gentle touch, or a crushing wave that surges through their biting jaws.

Solitary by nature, most blue oniborne choose to remain with the troop across their lives, a peaceful existence of isolation and independence. The few blue oniborne blessed with an adventurous spirit are unlikely to find kin in the wider world. They must journey without the guidance of their troop, every path an unmapped wilderness.

Ability Score Increase. Your Strength score increases by 1.

Compassionate Heart. The aid of a blue oniborne is an act of great selflessness imbued with powerful magic. You can take the Help action as a bonus action a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus, and you regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest. In addition, when you take the Help action, you can expend one of your Hit Dice to empower an ally within 5 feet of you, channelling your magic into its body. That creature gains temporary hit points equal to one roll of that die plus your Constitution modifier (minimum 1 temporary hit point).

Crunching Maw. You have vicious teeth and a strong jaw that you can use to make unarmed strikes. When you hit with it, the strike deals piercing damage equal to 1d6 + your Strength modifier, instead of the bludgeoning damage normal for an unarmed strike.

Gift of Empathy. You have proficiency in the Insight and Persuasion skills.

Savage Bite. As a reaction when you take damage from a creature within 5 feet of you, you can magically enlarge your jaw and lash out with a vicious bite. Make an unarmed strike using your Crunching Maw against that creature. This attack scores a critical hit on a roll of 18-20 on the d20. You can use this trait a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus, and you regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest.

Humanoid

Racial Trait

Your creature type is Humanoid.

Oni Regeneration

Feat

The incredible fortitude and longevity of your ancestors flows through you, granting you the following benefits:

- Increase your Constitution score by 1, to a maximum of 20.
- As a reaction when you take damage, you can spend a number of your Hit Dice up to your proficiency bonus to heal yourself. Roll the dice, add your Constitution modifier, and regain a number of hit points equal to the total (minimum of 1). You can use this benefit a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus, and you regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest.

Origin Feats: Savage Attacker(2024)

Feat

You gain the following benefits:

Tool Proficiency: You've trained to deal particularly damaging strikes. Once per turn when you hit a target with a weapon, you can roll the weapon's damage dice twice and use either roll against the target.

Darkvision

Vision

Many creatures in the worlds of D&D, especially those that dwell underground, have darkvision. Within a specified range, a creature with darkvision can see in darkness as if the darkness were dim light, so areas of darkness are only lightly obscured as far as that creature is concerned. However, the creature can’t discern color in darkness, only shades of gray.

Fighting Style

Class Feature

You adopt a particular style of fighting as your specialty. Choose one of the following options. You can't take a Fighting Style option more than once, even if you later get to choose again.

ARCHERY

You gain a +2 bonus to attack rolls you make with ranged weapons.

DEFENSE

While you are wearing armor, you gain a +1 bonus to AC.

DUELING

When you are wielding a melee weapon in one hand and no other weapons, you gain a +2 bonus to damage rolls with that weapon.

GREAT WEAPON FIGHTING

When you roll a 1 or 2 on a damage die for an attack you make with a melee weapon that you are wielding with two hands, you can reroll the die and must use the new roll, even if the new roll is a 1 or a 2. The weapon must have the two-handed or versatile property for you to gain this benefit.

PROTECTION

When a creature you can see attacks a target other than you that is within 5 feet of you, you can use your reaction to impose disadvantage on the attack roll. You must be wielding a shield.

TWO-WEAPON FIGHTING

When you engage in two-weapon fighting, you can add

Fighter — Player's Handbook

Defense

Class Feature

While you are wearing armor, you gain a +1 bonus to AC.

Fighting Style — Player's Handbook

Second Wind

Class Feature

You have a limited well of stamina that you can draw on to protect yourself from harm. On your turn, you can use a bonus action to regain hit points equal to 1d10 + your fighter level.

Once you use this feature, you must finish a short or long rest before you can use it again.

Fighter — Player's Handbook

Action Surge

Class Feature

Starting at 2nd level, you can push yourself beyond your normal limits for a moment. On your turn, you can take one additional action on top of your regular action and a possible bonus action.

Once you use this feature, you must finish a short or long rest before you can use it again. Starting at 17th level, you can use it twice before a rest, but only once on the same turn.

Fighter — Player's Handbook

Extra Attack

Class Feature

Beginning at 5th level, you can attack twice, instead of once, whenever you take the Attack action on your turn.

The number of attacks increases to three when you reach 11th level in this class and to four when you reach 20th level in this class.

Fighter — Player's Handbook

Indomitable

Class Feature

Beginning at 9th level, you can reroll a saving throw that you fail. If you do so, you must use the new roll, and you can't use this feature again until you finish a long rest.

You can use this feature twice between long rests starting at 13th level and three times between long rests starting at 17th level.

Fighter — Player's Handbook

Rune Carver

Archetype Feature

3rd-level Rune Knight feature

You can use magic runes to enhance your gear. You learn two runes of your choice, from among the runes described below, and each time you gain a level in this class, you can replace one rune you know with a different one from this feature. When you reach certain levels in this class, you learn additional runes, as shown in the Runes Known table.

Runes Known

Fighter Level	Number of Runes
3rd	2
7th	3
10th	4
15th	5

Whenever you finish a long rest, you can touch a number of objects equal to the number of runes you know, and you inscribe a different rune onto each of the objects. To be eligible, an object must be a weapon, suit of armor, a shield, a piece of jewelry, or something else you can wear or hold in a hand. Your rune remains on an object until you finish a long rest, and an object can bear only one of your runes at a time.

The following runes are available to you when you learn a rune. If a rune has a level requirement, you must be at least that level in this class to learn the rune. If a rune requires a saving throw, your Rune Magic save DC equals 8 + your proficiency bonus + your Constitution modifier.

Cloud Rune. This rune emulates the deceptive magic used by some cloud giants. While wearing or carrying an object inscribed with this rune, you have advantage on Dexterity (Sleight of Hand) checks and Charisma (Deception) checks.

In addition, when you or a creature you can see within 30 feet of you is hit by an attack roll, you can use your reaction to invoke the rune and choose a different creature within 30 feet of you, other than the attacker. The chosen creature becomes the target of the attack, using the same roll. This magic can transfer the attack's effects regardless of the attack's range. Once you invoke this rune, you can't do so again until you finish a short or long rest.

Fire Rune. This rune's magic channels the masterful craftsmanship of great smiths. While wearing or carrying an object inscribed with this rune, your proficiency bonus is doubled for any ability check you make that uses your proficiency with a tool.

In addition, when you hit a creature with an attack using a weapon, you can invoke the rune to summon fiery shackles: the target takes an extra 2d6 fire damage, and it must succeed on a Strength saving throw or be restrained for 1 minute. While restrained by the shackles, the target takes 2d6 fire damage at the start of each of its turns. The target can repeat the saving throw at the end of each of its turns, banishing the shackles on a success. Once you invoke this rune, you can't do so again until you finish a short or long rest.

Frost Rune. This rune's magic evokes the might of those who survive in the wintry wilderness, such as frost giants. While wearing or carrying an object inscribed with this rune, you have advantage on Wisdom (Animal Handling) checks and Charisma (Intimidation) checks.

In addition, you can invoke the rune as a bonus action to increase your sturdiness. For 10 minutes, you gain a +2 bonus to all ability checks and saving throws that use Strength or Constitution. Once you invoke this rune, you can't do so again until you finish a short or long rest.

Stone Rune. This rune's magic channels the judiciousness associated with stone giants. While wearing or carrying an object inscribed with this rune, you have advantage on Wisdom (Insight) checks, and you have darkvision out to a range of 120 feet.

In addition, when a creature you can see ends its turn within 30 feet of you, you can use your reaction to invoke the rune and force the creature to make a Wisdom saving throw. Unless the save succeeds, the creature is charmed by you for 1 minute. While charmed in this way, the creature has a speed of 0 and is incapacitated, descending into a dreamy stupor. The creature repeats the saving throw at the end of each of its turns, ending the effect on a success. Once you invoke this rune, you can't do so again until you finish a short or long rest.

Hill Rune (7th Level or Higher). This rune's magic bestows a resilience reminiscent of a hill giant. While wearing or carrying an object that bears this rune, you have advantage on saving throws against being poisoned, and you have resistance against poison damage.

In addition, you can invoke the rune as a bonus action, gaining resistance to bludgeoning, piercing, and slashing damage for 1 minute. Once you invoke this rune, you can't do so again until you finish a short or long rest.

Rune Knight — Tasha's Cauldron of Everything

Cloud Rune

Archetype Feature

This rune emulates the deceptive magic used by some cloud giants. While wearing or carrying an object inscribed with this rune, you have advantage on Dexterity (Sleight of Hand) checks and Charisma (Deception) checks.

In addition, when you or a creature you can see within 30 feet of you is hit by an attack roll, you can use your reaction to invoke the rune and choose a different creature within 30 feet of you, other than the attacker. The chosen creature becomes the target of the attack, using the same roll. This magic can transfer the attack's effects regardless of the attack's range. Once you invoke this rune, you can't do so again until you finish a short or long rest.

Rune Carver — Tasha's Cauldron of Everything

Storm Rune

Archetype Feature

Prerequisite: 7th level

Using this rune, you can glimpse the future like a storm giant seer. While wearing or carrying an object inscribed with this rune, you have advantage on Intelligence (Arcana) checks, and you can't be surprised as long as you aren't incapacitated.

In addition, you can invoke the rune as a bonus action to enter a prophetic state for 1 minute or until you're incapacitated. Until the state ends, when you or another creature you can see within 60 feet of you makes an attack roll, a saving throw, or an ability check, you can use your reaction to cause the roll to have advantage or disadvantage. Once you invoke this rune, you can't do so again until you finish a short or long rest.

Rune Carver — Tasha's Cauldron of Everything

Giant's Might

Archetype Feature

3rd-level Rune Knight feature

You have learned how to imbue yourself with the might of giants. As a bonus action, you magically gain the following benefits, which last for 1 minute:

- If you are smaller than Large, you become Large, along with anything you are wearing. If you lack the room to become Large, your size doesn't change.
- You have advantage on Strength checks and Strength saving throws.
- Once on each of your turns, one of your attacks with a weapon or an unarmed strike can deal an extra 1d6 damage to a target on a hit.

You can use this feature a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus, and you regain all expended uses of it when you finish a long rest.

Rune Knight — Tasha's Cauldron of Everything

Runic Shield

Archetype Feature

7th-level Rune Knight feature

You learn to invoke your rune magic to protect your allies. When another creature you can see within 60 feet of you is hit by an attack roll, you can use your reaction to force the attacker to reroll the d20 and use the new roll.

You can use this feature a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus, and you regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest.

Rune Knight — Tasha's Cauldron of Everything

Rage

Class Feature

In battle, you fight with primal ferocity. On your turn, you can enter a rage as a bonus action. While raging, you gain the following benefits if you aren't wearing heavy armor:

- You have advantage on Strength checks and Strength saving throws.
- When you make a melee weapon attack using Strength, you gain a bonus to the damage roll that increases as you gain levels as a barbarian, as shown in the Rage Damage column of the Barbarian table.
- You have resistance to bludgeoning, piercing, and slashing damage.

If you are able to cast spells, you can't cast them or concentrate on them while raging.

Your rage lasts for 1 minute. It ends early if you are knocked unconscious or if your turn ends and you haven't attacked a hostile creature since your last turn or taken damage since then. You can also end your rage on your turn as a bonus action.

Once you have raged the number of times shown for your barbarian level in the Rages column of the Barbarian table, you must finish a long rest before you can rage again.

Barbarian — Player's Handbook

Unarmored Defense

Class Feature

While you are not wearing any armor, your Armor Class equals 10 + your Dexterity modifier + your Constitution modifier. You can use a shield and still gain this benefit.

Barbarian — Player's Handbook

Reckless Attack

Class Feature

Starting at 2nd level, you can throw aside all concern for defense to attack with fierce desperation. When you make your first attack on your turn, you can decide to attack recklessly. Doing so gives you advantage on melee weapon attack rolls using Strength during this turn, but attack rolls against you have advantage until your next turn.

Barbarian — Player's Handbook

Danger Sense

Class Feature

At 2nd level, you gain an uncanny sense of when things nearby aren't as they should be, giving you an edge when you dodge away from danger.

You have advantage on Dexterity saving throws against effects that you can see, such as traps and spells. To gain this benefit, you can't be blinded, deafened, or incapacitated.

Barbarian — Player's Handbook

Divine Fury

Archetype Feature

Starting when you choose this path at 3rd level, you can channel divine fury into your weapon strikes. While you're raging, the first creature you hit on each of your turns with a weapon attack takes extra damage equal to 1d6 + half your barbarian level. The extra damage is necrotic or radiant; you choose the type of damage when you gain this feature.

Path of the Zealot — Xanathar's Guide to Everything

Warrior of the Gods

Archetype Feature

At 3rd level, your soul is marked for endless battle. If a spell, such as raise dead, has the sole effect of restoring you to life (but not undeath), the caster doesn't need material components to cast the spell on you.
