Vampiric Conduit (1/Short Rest). You can cast the chosen Vampire Blood Magic spell once at its 4th-level version without expending a spell slot or requiring material components. You regain the ability to cast the spell in this way when you finish a short rest. Your spellcasting ability for this spell is varies by chosen spell.

Blood Bound Beacon. Your soul is no longer private. The vampire who granted you this gift knows your exact location at all times, regardless of distance or across different planes of existence. You cannot be hidden from the Creator by any magical or non-magical means.

Sanguine Weakness. Your body has been sharing some of the vampire weaknesses. Your resistances and immunities can bypassed if the attack is made with a Silvered weapons or any other silvered manners. Additionally, you can't regain any hit points after getting hit with silvered attacks until start of your next turn.

RACIAL TRAITS

Sharpshooter Revised. Attacking at long range doesn't impose disadvantage on your ranged weapon attack rolls. Your ranged weapon attacks ignore half cover and three-quarters cover. Before you make an attack with a ranged weapon that you are proficient with, you can choose to take a penalty equal to your proficiency bonus to the attack roll. If the attack hits, you add your proficiency bonus to the attack's damage.

Dual Wielder. +1 bonus to AC while you are wielding a separate melee weapon in each hand.You can use two-weapon fighting even when the one-handed melee weapons you are wielding aren't light.You can draw or stow two one-handed weapons when you would normally be able to draw or stow only one.

Origin Feats: Savage Attacker(2024). Once per turn when you hit a target with a weapon, you can roll the weapon's damage dice twice and use either roll against the target.

Favored Enemy. You have advantage on Survival checks to track your favored enemies, as well as on Intelligence checks to recall information about them.
Aberrations.

Natural Explorer. When you make an Intelligence or Wisdom check related to your favored terrain, your proficiency bonus is doubled if you are using a skill that you're proficient in. While traveling for an hour or more in your favored terrain, you gain the following benefits:Difficult terrain doesn't slow your group's travel.Your group can't become lost except by magical means.Even when you are engaged in another activity while traveling, you remain alert to danger.If you are traveling alone, you can move stealthily at a normal pace.When you forage, you find twice as much food as you normally would.While tracking other creatures, you also learn their exact number, their sizes, and how long ago they passed through the area.
Mountain.

Fighting Style.
Archery. You gain a +2 bonus to attack rolls you make with ranged weapons.

Primeval Awareness (Action). You can expend one ranger spell slot to focus your awareness on the region around you.For 1 minute per level of the spell slot you expend, you can sense whether the following types of creatures are present within 1 mile of you (or within up to 6 miles if you are in your favored terrain): aberrations, celestials, dragons, elementals, fey, fiends, and undead. This feature doesn't reveal the creatures' location or number.

Extra Attack. You can attack twice, instead of once, whenever you take the Attack action on your turn.

Dread Ambusher. At the start of your first turn, your walking speed increases by 10ft until the end of that turn. If you attack that turn, make one additional weapon attack. If it hits, the target takes an extra 1d8 damage.

Umbral Sight. While in darkness, you are invisible to any creature that relies on darkvision to see you in that darkness.

Darkvision. You can see in dim light within 60 feet of you as if it were bright light, and in darkness as if it were dim light.

Fighting Style.

Second Wind (Bonus Action—1/Short Rest). You regain 1d10+3 hp.

Action Surge (1/Short Rest). On your turn, you can take one additional action on top of your regular action.

Superior Technique (1d8/Short Rest). If a maneuver you use requires your target to make a saving throw to resist the maneuver's effects, the saving throw DC equals 17.
Ambush. When you make a Stealth check or an initiative roll, you can expend one superiority die and add the die to the roll, provided you aren't incapacitated.

Combat Superiority. You learn maneuvers that are fueled by special dice called superiority dice. You have 4 superiority dice which are d8s. DC 17
Menacing Attack. When you hit a creature with a weapon attack, you can expend one superiority die to attempt to frighten the target. You add the superiority die to the attack's damage roll, and the target must make a Wisdom saving throw. On a failed save, it is frightened of you until the end of your next turn.
Precision Attack. When you make a weapon attack roll against a creature, you can expend one superiority die to add it to the roll. You can use this maneuver before or after making the attack roll, but before any effects of the attack are applied.
Commander's Strike. When you take the Attack action on your turn, you can forgo one of your attacks and use a bonus action to direct one of your companions to strike. When you do so, choose a friendly creature who can see or hear you and expend one superiority die. That creature can immediately use its reaction to make one weapon attack, adding the superiority die to the attack's damage roll.

Sneak Attack (1/Turn). When you hit a creature with a Finesse or a Ranged weapon, you can deal extra 2d6 weapon damage. You must have Advantage on the attack roll or an ally that doesn't have Incapacitated condition within 5 ft. of the target. The attack also mustn't have Disadvantage.

Weapon Mastery. Whenever you finish a Long Rest, you can change one of the weapon masteries you have to a different one.
Longbow (Slow). If you hit a creature with this weapon and deal damage to it, you can reduce its Speed by 10 feet until the start of your next turn. If the creature is hit more than once by weapons that have this property, the Speed reduction doesn't exceed 10 feet.
Greataxe (Cleave) (1/Turn). If you hit a creature with a melee attack roll using this weapon, you can make a melee attack roll with the weapon against a second creature within 5 feet of the first that is also within your reach. On a hit, the second creature takes the weapon's damage, but don't add your ability modifier to that damage unless that modifier is negative.

Cunning Action (Bonus Action). You can take Dash, Disengage, or Hide action.

Steady Aim (Bonus Action). You can give yourself Advantage on your next attack roll on the current turn. You can use this feature only if you haven't moved during this turn, and after you use it, your Speed is 0 until the end of the current turn.

Assassinate. During first round of combat, you have Advantage on attack rolls against any creature that hasn't taken a turn in the combat yet, and your Sneak Attack deals an additional 4 damage.

CHARACTER PORTRAIT

NAME

SYMBOL

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

I always have a plan for what to do when things go wrong.

PERSONALITY TRAITS

Greed. I will do whatever it takes to become wealthy. (Evil)

IDEAL

I'm guilty of a terrible crime. I hope I can redeem myself for it.

BOND

I have a "tell" that reveals when I'm lying.

FLAW

Before you became an adventurer, your life was already full of conflict and excitement, because you made a living tracking down people for pay. Unlike some people who collect bounties, though, you aren't a savage who follows quarry into or through the wilderness. You're involved in a lucrative trade, in the place where you live, that routinely tests your skills and survival instincts. What's more, you aren't alone, as a bounty hunter in the wild would be: you routinely interact with both the criminal subculture and other bounty hunters, maintaining contacts in both areas to help you succeed.

You might be a cunning thief-catcher, prowling the rooftops to catch one of the myriad burglars of the city. Perhaps you are someone who has your ear to the street, aware of the doings of thieves' guilds and street gangs. You might be a "velvet mask" bounty hunter, one who blends in with high society and noble circles in order to catch the criminals that prey on the rich, whether pickpockets or con artists. The community where you plied your trade might have been one of Faerûn's great metropolises, such as Waterdeep or Baldur's Gate, or a less populous location, perhaps Luskan or Yartar- any place that's large enough to have a steady supply of potential quarries.

As a member of an adventuring party, you might find it more difficult to pursue a personal agenda that doesn't fit with the group's objectives- but on the other hand, you can take down much more formidable targets with the help of your companions.

BACKGROUND STORY

Feature: Ear to the Ground

You are in frequent contact with people in the segment of society that your chosen quarries move through. These people might be associated with the criminal underworld, the rough-and-tumble folk of the streets, or members of high society. This connection comes in the form of a contact in any city you visit, a person who provides information about the people and places of the local area.

Greataxe of the Rift Weaver.
Born from the silent, freezing expanses of the Abyssal Slip, the Greataxe of the Rift Weaver was once the sacred tool of Valerius the Unspoken, a legendary Rift Hunter who did not stand alone against the tides of the void. During the War of the Shattered Constellations, Valerius marched alongside the master-choristers of the Harmonium Guild of Melodia, their celestial anthems briefly pushing back the hollow will of The Dark One. Yet, within the Void-Scarred Nebula, the music died; the Guild was silenced in a cacophony of shadow, and Valerius was struck down as the last note of Melodia's bravery faded into the dark. Claimed as a trophy of that grand defeat, the weapon—a masterpiece of gravity-defying chitin—was dragged into the depths by Mortarossa, who embedded the blade within her own thorax to stifle its cosmic resonance with her profane rot. For centuries, the axe hummed a mournful, rhythmic vibration against her ribs, a funeral dirge for the Guild brothers it could no longer protect. Now, freed from its fleshy prison, the axe retains its unnerving, weightless grace and a vengeful hunger; it strikes not merely at the body, but at the fabric of existence, seeking to unweave the reality of its foes with the same cold, harmonic precision that once echoed through the halls of Melodia. This weapon is forged from a single piece of incredibly dense, blackened otherworldly chitin, harvested from the fungal queen's remains. Though it retains the Greataxe shape (a heavy, two-handed, wickedly sharp blade), its weight and balance are unnaturally light, designed for precise, devastating strikes. The edge shimmers with faint, chaotic energy. You gain a +2 bonus to attack and damage rolls made with this magic weapon.
Finesse Adaptation. When you attuned to this weapon, you immediately considered proficient with Greataxes. Also you can wield this weapon with the Finesse property but not with full efficiency. When you attack with it, you can use your Dexterity modifier, instead of your Strength modifier, for the attack and damage rolls. When you wield this weapon as a finesse weapon, its damage reduces to 1d8 instead of 1d12.
Rift Stalker's Corrupted Strike. When you hit a creature with this weapon, you can choose to deal an extra 1d8 Force damage. If you reduce a creature to 0 hit points with this damage, the creature is instantly disintegrated into a pile of pale spores and eldritch dust.
Grappler's Cosmis Bane. When you successfully hit a creature that is Grappled or Restrained by any effect, the extra damage increases to 2d8 Force damage. Dealing damage in this manner, also ignores resistance and immunity to Force damage.
Rift Hunter's Precision. When you roll a 1 or 2 on a damage die for this weapon, you can choose to reroll one die once per turn. You must use the new roll, even if the new roll is a 1 or 2.

Glimmering Moonbow (Longbow). This silver-and-black bow is engraved with the phases of the moon. You gain a +1 bonus to attack and damage rolls made with this magic weapon.
When you hit with a ranged attack roll using this magic bow, the target takes an extra 1d6 radiant damage. If you load no ammunition in the weapon, it produces its own, automatically creating one piece of magic ammunition when you make a ranged attack with it. The ammunition created by the bow vanishes the instant after it hits or misses a target.
While wielding this magic bow, you can use a bonus action to enter a semi-incorporeal state until the start of your next turn. While semi-incorporeal, you have resistance to bludgeoning, piercing, and slashing damage. Once this bonus action is used, it can't be used again until the next dawn.

Wings of Flying. While wearing this cloak, you can use an action to speak its command word. This turns the cloak into a pair of bat wings or bird wings on your back for 1 hour or until you repeat the command word as an action. The wings give you a flying speed of 60 feet. When they disappear, you can't use them again for 1d12 hours.

Visor of Hidden Presences.
Glass does not lie — it only shows what hunts you. And what hunts you has always been there, long before the rose crept in.
These octagonal silver-framed spectacles are set with deep violet lenses that shift subtly in hue when unseen forces draw near.
While wearing these spectacles, you become passively aware of invisible or ethereal creatures within 15 feet of you. The left lens remains a calm blue when no such presence is detected; it shifts to a deep rose when at least one invisible or ethereal creature is within range.
The spectacles do not reveal the nature, number, or exact location of such creatures — only that something is there. This detection requires no action or concentration and functions continuously while the spectacles are worn.
The effect does not penetrate total darkness unless you have a means of seeing within it, and it does not function while you are blinded.

Boots of Elvenkind. While you wear these boots, your steps make no sound, regardless of the surface you are moving across. You also have advantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks that rely on moving silently.

Periapt of Health. You are immune to contracting any disease while you wear this pendant. If you are already infected with a disease, the effects of the disease are suppressed you while you wear the pendant.

Mark of the Sanguine Heart.
Through the dark arts of a high-born vampire, your life was tethered back to the material plane. In place of your natural heartbeat, a jagged, obsidian-like mark pulses with a predatory rhythm. This brand is not just a scar; it is a conduit for the ancient blood magic of the forbidden Vampiric Dark Arts.
Vampiric Conduit: You learn one spell of your choice from the Vampire Blood Magic spell list. You can cast this spell once at its 4th-level version without expending a spell slot or requiring material components. You regain the ability to cast the spell in this way when you finish a short or long rest. Your spellcasting ability for this spell is varies by chosen spell.
Blood Bound Beacon: Your soul is no longer private. The vampire who granted you this gift knows your exact location at all times, regardless of distance or across different planes of existence. You cannot be hidden from the Creator by any magical or non-magical means. Additionally, as a bonus action, the Creator can speak through your mark, allowing their voice to whisper directly into your mind.
Sanguine Weakness: Your body has been sharing some of the vampire weaknesses. Your resistances and immunities can bypassed if the attack is made with a Silvered weapons or any other silvered manners. Additionally, you can't regain any hit points after getting hit with silvered attacks until start of your next turn.

Absorb Elements

1st-level abjuration

CASTING TIME	1 reaction, which you take when you take acid, cold, fire, lightning, or thunder damage
RANGE	Self
DURATION	1 round
COMPONENTS	S

The spell captures some of the incoming energy, lessening its effect on you and storing it for your next melee attack. You have resistance to the triggering damage type until the start of your next turn. Also, the first time you hit with a melee attack on your next turn, the target takes an extra 1d6 damage of the triggering type, and the spell ends.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 2nd level or higher, the extra damage increases by 1d6 for each slot level above 1st.

Spellcasting (Ranger) Xanathar's Guide to Everything

Disguise Self

1st-level illusion

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	Self
DURATION	1 hour
COMPONENTS	V, S

You make yourself—including your clothing, armor, weapons, and other belongings on your person—look different until the spell ends or until you use your action to dismiss it. You can seem 1 foot shorter or taller and can appear thin, fat, or in between. You can't change your body type, so you must adopt a form that has the same basic arrangement of limbs. Otherwise, the extent of the illusion is up to you.

The changes wrought by this spell fail to hold up to physical inspection. For example, if you use this spell to add a hat to your outfit, objects pass through the hat, and anyone who touches it would feel nothing or would feel your head and hair. If you use this spell to appear thinner than you are, the hand of someone who reaches out to touch you would bump into you while it was seemingly still in midair.

To discern that you are disguised, a creature can use its action to inspect your appearance and must succeed on an Intelligence (Investigation) check against your spell save DC.

Gloom Stalker Magic (Ranger) Player's Handbook

Hunter's Mark

1st-level divination

CASTING TIME	1 bonus action
RANGE	90 feet
DURATION	Concentration, up to 1 hour
COMPONENTS	V

You choose a creature you can see within range and mystically mark it as your quarry. Until the spell ends, you deal an extra 1d6 damage to the target whenever you hit it with a weapon attack, and you have advantage on any Wisdom (Perception) or Wisdom (Survival) check you make to find it. If the target drops to 0 hit points before this spell ends, you can use a bonus action on a subsequent turn of yours to mark a new creature.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 3rd or 4th level, you can maintain your concentration on the spell for up to 8 hours. When you use a spell slot of 5th level or higher, you can maintain your concentration on the spell for up to 24 hours.

Spellcasting (Ranger) Player's Handbook

Lesser Restoration

2nd-level abjuration

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	Touch
DURATION	Instantaneous
COMPONENTS	V, S

You touch a creature and can end either one disease or one condition afflicting it. The condition can be blinded, deafened, paralyzed, or poisoned.

Spellcasting (Ranger) Player's Handbook

Protection from Poison

2nd-level abjuration

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	Touch
DURATION	1 hour
COMPONENTS	V, S

You touch a creature. If it is poisoned, you neutralize the poison. If more than one poison afflicts the target, you neutralize on poison that you know is present, or you neutralize one at random.

For the duration, the target has advantage on saving throws against being poisoned, and it has resistance to poison damage.

Spellcasting (Ranger) Player's Handbook

Rope Trick

2nd-level transmutation

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	Touch
DURATION	1 hour
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (powdered corn extract and a twisted loop of parchment)

You touch a length of rope that is up to 60 feet long. One end of the rope then rises into the air until the whole rope hangs perpendicular to the ground. At the upper end of the rope, an invisible entrance opens to an extradimensional space that lasts until the spell ends.

The extradimensional space can be reached by climbing to the top of the rope. The space can hold as many as eight Medium or smaller creatures. The rope can be pulled into the space, making the rope disappear from view outside the space.

Attacks and spells can't cross through the entrance into or out of the extradimensional space, but those inside can see out of it as if through a 3-foot-by-5-foot window centered on the rope.

Anything inside the extradimensional space drops out when the spell ends.

Gloom Stalker Magic (Ranger) Player's Handbook

Heart Strike

4th-level necromancy (vampire blood magic)

CASTING TIME	1 Action
RANGE	Self
DURATION	Instantaneous
COMPONENTS	V, S

You dash forward in line up to 30 feet with savage ferocity, affecting creatures with Leech condition. Make a melee spell attack on each creature in the line. If you're not a spellcaster, you can use your Strength or Dexterity for attacking instead. Each successful attack deals 2d8 necrotic damage to a creature and heals you for 1d8 hit points.

The first creature successfully hit erupts in a nova of blood at the beginning of their next turn and must make a Constitution saving throw, taking 2d8 necrotic damage on a failed save or half as much on a successful one. That creature and all creatures within a 15-foot radius of them become affected by Leech condition.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 5th level or higher, both the healing and damage increases by 1d8 for each spell slot level above 4th.

Vampiric Conduit (Mark of the Sanguine Heart) HailJoe Spells

Rope of Climbing

Wondrous Items

This 60-foot length of silk rope weighs 3 pounds and can hold up to 3,000 pounds. If you hold one end of the rope and use an action to speak the command word, the rope animates. As a bonus action, you can command the other end to move toward a destination you choose. That end moves 10 feet on your turn when you first command it and 10 feet on each of your turns until reaching its destination, up to its maximum length away, or until you tell it to stop. You can also tell the rope to fasten itself securely to an object or to unfasten itself, to knot or unknot itself, or to coil itself for carrying.

If you tell the rope to knot, large knots appear at 1-foot intervals along the rope. While knotted, the rope shortens to a 50-foot length and grants advantage on checks made to climb it.

The rope has AC 20 and 20 hit points. It regains 1 hit point every 5 minutes as long as it has at least 1 hit point. If the rope drops to 0 hit points, it is destroyed.

Thieves' Tools

Tools

Perhaps the most common tools used by adventurers, thieves' tools are designed for picking locks and foiling traps. Proficiency with the tools also grants you a general knowledge of traps and locks.

Components. Thieves' tools include a small file, a set Of lock picks, a small mirror mounted on a metal handle, a set of narrow—bladed scissors, and a pair of pliers.

History. Your knowledge of traps grants you insight when answering questions about locations that are renowned for their traps.

Investigation and Perception. You gain additional insight when looking for traps, because you have learned a variety of common signs that betray their presence.

Set a Trap. Just as you can disable traps, you can also set them. As part of a short rest, you can create a trap using items you have on hand. The total of your check becomes the DC for someone else's attempt to discover or disable the trap. The trap deals damage appropriate to the materials used in crafting it (such as poison or a weapon) or damage equal to half the total of your check, whichever the DM deems appropriate.

Mark of the Sanguine Heart

Supernatural Gifts

Through the dark arts of a high-born vampire, your life was tethered back to the material plane. In place of your natural heartbeat, a jagged, obsidian-like mark pulses with a predatory rhythm. This brand is not just a scar; it is a conduit for the ancient blood magic of the forbidden Vampiric Dark Arts.

Vampiric Conduit: You learn one spell of your choice from the Vampire Blood Magic spell list. You can cast this spell once at its 4th-level version without expending a spell slot or requiring material components. You regain the ability to cast the spell in this way when you finish a short or long rest. Your spellcasting ability for this spell is varies by chosen spell.

Blood Bound Beacon: Your soul is no longer private. The vampire who granted you this gift knows your exact location at all times, regardless of distance or across different planes of existence. You cannot be hidden from the Creator by any magical or non-magical means. Additionally, as a bonus action, the Creator can speak through your mark, allowing their voice to whisper directly into your mind.

Sanguine Weakness: Your body has been sharing some of the vampire weaknesses. Your resistances and immunities can bypassed if the attack is made with a Silvered weapons or any other silvered manners. Additionally, you can't regain any hit points after getting hit with silvered attacks until start of your next turn.

Sharpshooter Revised

Feat

You have mastered ranged weapons and can make shots that others find impossible. You gain the following benefits:

- Attacking at long range doesn't impose disadvantage on your ranged weapon attack rolls.
- Your ranged weapon attacks ignore half cover and three-quarters cover.
- Before you use your "Attack Action" to make an attack with a ranged weapon that you are proficient with, you can choose to take a penalty equal to your proficiency bonus to the attack roll. If the attack hits, you add the same amount of your proficiency bonus to the attack's damage.
- Note that this feat only works with action attacks. Bonus action attacks, reactions, and other attacks that you make not on your turn do not trigger the condition of this feat.
- On the other hand, some original attack patterns like "Flurry of Blows", even if they require a bonus action, will still be able to trigger this effect.

Human Variant — HailJoe Feats

Dual Wielder

Feat

You master fighting with two weapons, gaining the following benefits:

- You gain a +1 bonus to AC while you are wielding a separate melee weapon in each hand.
- You can use two-weapon fighting even when the one-handed melee weapons you are wielding aren't light.
- You can draw or stow two one-handed weapons when you would normally be able to draw or stow only one.

Feat (4) — Player's Handbook

Origin Feats: Savage Attacker(2024)

Feat

You gain the following benefits:

Tool Proficiency: You've trained to deal particularly damaging strikes. Once per turn when you hit a target with a weapon, you can roll the weapon's damage dice twice and use either roll against the target.

Favored Enemy

Class Feature

Beginning at 1st level, you have significant experience studying, tracking, hunting, and even talking to a certain type of enemy.

Choose a type of favored enemy: aberrations, beasts, celestials, constructs, dragons, elementals, fey, fiends, giants, monstrosities, oozes, plants, or undead. Alternatively, you can select two races of humanoid (such as gnolls and orcs) as favored enemies.

You have advantage on Wisdom (Survival) checks to track your favored enemies, as well as on Intelligence checks to recall information about them.

When you gain this feature, you also learn one language of your choice that is spoken by your favored enemies, if they speak one at all.

You choose one additional favored enemy, as well as an associated language, at 6th and 14th level. As you gain levels, your choices should reflect the types of monsters you have encountered on your adventures.

Ranger — Player's Handbook

Aberrations

Class Feature

Aberrations are utterly alien beings. Many of them have innate magical abilities drawn from the creature's alien mind rather than the mystical forces of the world. The quintessential aberrations are aboleths, beholders, mind flayers, and slaadi.

Favored Enemy — Player's Handbook

Natural Explorer

Class Feature

You are particularly familiar with one type of natural environment and are adept at traveling and surviving in such regions. Choose one type of favored terrain: arctic, coast, desert, forest, grassland, mountain, swamp, or the Underdark. When you make an Intelligence or Wisdom check related to your favored terrain, your proficiency bonus is doubled if you are using a skill that you're proficient in.

While traveling for an hour or more in your favored terrain, you gain the following benefits:

- Difficult terrain doesn't slow your group's travel.
- Your group can't become lost except by magical means.
- Even when you are engaged in another activity while traveling (such as foraging, navigating, or tracking), you remain alert to danger.
- If you are traveling alone, you can move stealthily at a normal pace.
- When you forage, you find twice as much food as you normally would.
- While tracking other creatures, you also learn their exact number, their sizes, and how long ago they passed through the area.

You choose additional favored terrain types at 6th and 10th level.

Ranger — Player's Handbook

Mountain

Natural Explorer — Aurora Legacy Essentials

Fighting Style

Class Feature

At 2nd level, you adopt a particular style of fighting as your specialty. Choose one of the following options. You can't take a Fighting Style option more than once, even if you later get to choose again.

ARCHERY

You gain a +2 bonus to attack rolls you make with ranged weapons.

DEFENSE

While you are wearing armor, you gain a +1 bonus to AC.

DUELING

When you are wielding a melee weapon in one hand and no other weapons, you gain a +2 bonus to damage rolls with that weapon.

TWO-WEAPON FIGHTING

When you engage in two-weapon fighting, you can add your ability modifier to the damage of the second attack.

Ranger — Player's Handbook

Archery

Class Feature

You gain a +2 bonus to attack rolls you make with ranged weapons.

Fighting Style — Player's Handbook

Primeval Awareness

Class Feature

Beginning at 3rd level, you can use your action and expend one ranger spell slot to focus your awareness on the region around you. For 1 minute per level of the spell slot you expend, you can sense whether the following types of creatures are present within 1 mile of you (or within up to 6 miles if you are in your favored terrain): aberrations, celestials, dragons, elementals, fey, fiends, and undead. This feature doesn't reveal the creatures' location or number.

Ranger — Player's Handbook

Extra Attack

Class Feature

Beginning at 5th level, you can attack twice, instead of once, whenever you take the Attack action on your turn.

Ranger — Player's Handbook

Dread Ambusher

Archetype Feature

At 3rd level, you master the art of the ambush. You can give yourself a bonus to your initiative rolls equal to your Wisdom modifier.

At the start of your first turn of each combat, your walking speed increases by 10 feet, which lasts until the end of that turn. If you take the Attack action on that turn, you can make one additional weapon attack as part of that action. If that attack hits, the target takes an extra 1d8 damage of the weapons damage type.

Gloom Stalker — Xanathar's Guide to Everything

Umbral Sight

Archetype Feature

At 3rd level, you gain darkvision out to a range of 60 feet. If you already have darkvision from your race, its range increases by 30 feet.

You are also adept at evading creatures that rely on darkvision. While in darkness, you are invisible to any creature that relies on darkvision to see you in that darkness.

Gloom Stalker — Xanathar's Guide to Everything

Darkvision

Vision

Many creatures in the worlds of D&D, especially those that dwell underground, have darkvision. Within a specified range, a creature with darkvision can see in darkness as if the darkness were dim light, so areas of darkness are only lightly obscured as far as that creature is concerned. However, the creature can't discern color in darkness, only shades of gray.

Umbral Sight — Internal

Fighting Style

Class Feature

You adopt a particular style of fighting as your specialty. Choose one of the following options. You can't take a Fighting Style option more than once, even if you later get to choose again.

ARCHERY

You gain a +2 bonus to attack rolls you make with ranged weapons.

DEFENSE

While you are wearing armor, you gain a +1 bonus to AC.

DUELING

When you are wielding a melee weapon in one hand and no other weapons, you gain a +2 bonus to damage rolls with that weapon.

GREAT WEAPON FIGHTING

When you roll a 1 or 2 on a damage die for an attack you make with a melee weapon that you are wielding with two hands, you can reroll the die and must use the new roll, even if the new roll is a 1 or a 2. The weapon must have the two-handed or versatile property for you to gain this benefit.

PROTECTION

When a creature you can see attacks a target other than you that is within 5 feet of you, you can use your reaction to impose disadvantage on the attack roll. You must be wielding a shield.

TWO-WEAPON FIGHTING

When you engage in two-weapon fighting, you can add

Fighter — Player's Handbook

Second Wind

Class Feature

You have a limited well of stamina that you can draw on to protect yourself from harm. On your turn, you can use a bonus action to regain hit points equal to 1d10 + your fighter level.

Once you use this feature, you must finish a short or long rest before you can use it again.

Fighter — Player's Handbook

Action Surge

Class Feature

Starting at 2nd level, you can push yourself beyond your normal limits for a moment. On your turn, you can take one additional action on top of your regular action and a possible bonus action.

Once you use this feature, you must finish a short or long rest before you can use it again. Starting at 17th level, you can use it twice before a rest, but only once on the same turn.

Fighter — Player's Handbook

Maneuver Select

Class Feature

If a maneuver you use requires your target to make a saving throw to resist the maneuver's effects, the saving throw DC equals 8 + your proficiency bonus + your Strength or Dexterity modifier (your choice).

Superior Technique — Tasha's Cauldron of Everything

Ambush

Archetype Feature

When you make a Dexterity (Stealth) check or an initiative roll, you can expend one superiority die and add the die to the roll, provided you aren't incapacitated.

Maneuver Select — Tasha's Cauldron of Everything

Combat Superiority

Archetype Feature

When you choose this archetype at 3rd level, you learn maneuvers that are fueled by special dice called superiority dice.

Maneuvers. You learn three maneuvers of your choice, which are detailed under "Maneuvers" below. Many maneuvers enhance an attack in some way. You can use only one maneuver per attack. You learn two additional maneuvers of your choice at 7th, 10th, and 15th level. Each time you learn new maneuvers, you can also replace one maneuver you know with a different one.

Superiority Dice. You have four superiority dice, which are d8s. A superiority die is expended when you use it. You regain all of your expended superiority dice when you finish a short or long rest. You gain another superiority die at 7th level and one more at 15th level.

Saving Throws. Some of your maneuvers require your target to make a saving throw to resist the maneuver's effects. The saving throw DC is calculated as follows:

Maneuver save DC = 8 + your proficiency bonus + your Strength or Dexterity modifier (your choice).

Battle Master — Player's Handbook

Menacing Attack

Archetype Feature

When you hit a creature with a weapon attack, you can expend one superiority die to attempt to frighten the target. You add the superiority die to the attack's damage roll, and the target must make a Wisdom saving throw. On a failed save, it is frightened of you until the end of your next turn.

Combat Superiority — Player's Handbook

Precision Attack

Archetype Feature

When you make a weapon attack roll against a creature, you can expend one superiority die to add it to the roll. You can use this maneuver before or after making the attack roll, but before any effects of the attack are applied.

Combat Superiority — Player's Handbook

Commander's Strike

Archetype Feature

When you take the Attack action on your turn, you can forgo one of your attacks and use a bonus action to direct one of your companions to strike. When you do so, choose a friendly creature who can see or hear you and expend one superiority die. That creature can immediately use its reaction to make one weapon attack, adding the superiority die to the attack's damage roll.

Combat Superiority — Player's Handbook

Level 1: Sneak Attack

Class Feature

You know how to strike subtly and exploit a foe's distraction. Once per turn, you can deal an extra 1d6 damage to one creature you hit with an attack roll if you have Advantage on the roll and the attack uses a Finesse or a Ranged weapon. The extra damage's type is the same as the weapon's type.

You don't need Advantage on the attack roll if at least one of your allies is within 5 feet of the target, the ally doesn't have the Incapacitated condition, and you don't have Disadvantage on the attack roll.

The extra damage increases as you gain Rogue levels, as shown in the Sneak Attack column of the Rogue Features table.

Rogue — Player's Handbook (2024)

Level 1: Weapon Mastery

Class Feature

Your training with weapons allows you to use the mastery properties of two kinds of weapons of your choice with which you have proficiency, such as Daggers and Shortbows.

Whenever you finish a Long Rest, you can change the kinds of weapons you chose. For example, you could switch to using the mastery properties of Scimitars and Shortswords.

Longbow (Slow)

Class Feature

If you hit a creature with this weapon and deal damage to it, you can reduce its Speed by 10 feet until the start of your next turn. If the creature is hit more than once by weapons that have this property, the Speed reduction doesn't exceed 10 feet.

Greataxe (Cleave)

Class Feature

If you hit a creature with a melee attack roll using this weapon, you can make a melee attack roll with the weapon against a second creature within 5 feet of the first that is also within your reach. On a hit, the second creature takes the weapon's damage, but don't add your ability modifier to that damage unless that modifier is negative. You can make this extra attack only once per turn.

Level 2: Cunning Action

Class Feature

Your quick thinking and agility allow you to move and act quickly. On your turn, you can take one of the following actions as a Bonus Action: Dash, Disengage, or Hide.

Level 3: Steady Aim

Class Feature

As a Bonus Action, you give yourself Advantage on your next attack roll on the current turn. You can use this feature only if you haven't moved during this turn, and after you use it, your Speed is 0 until the end of the current turn.

Level 3: Assassinate

Archetype Feature

You're adept at ambushing a target, granting you the following benefits:

Initiative. You have Advantage on Initiative rolls.

Surprising Strikes. During the first round of each combat, you have Advantage on attack rolls against any creature that hasn't taken a turn. If your Sneak Attack hits any target during that round, the target takes extra damage of the weapon's type equal to your Rogue level.
